Motivation

What is the issue or problem you want to address in your country?

Please give a brief outline [in min 50 and max 1000 characters] of the issue or problem hindering the development of your country you would like to contribute to solving using the knowledge and expertise gained by attending the study program or course.

How will this course enable you to address this issue?

Please explain [in min 50 and max 1000 characters] what knowledge and expertise you expect to gain from the course or study program and how this specific knowledge and expertise can contribute to solving the issue or problem.

How will you address this issue with your position within your organisation?

Please describe [in min 50 and max 1000 characters] the position you hold in your organization and explain why and how this position will enable you to address the issue or problem with the knowledge gained from the course or study program. You do not need to include a detailed list of activities here, as a specific plan of activities forms part of the "employer's statement" that has to be uploaded separately.

Documents to prepare in advance

Candidates will need to prepare for uploading several documents with their registration. Each document should be prepared in PDF format and not exceed 2MB.

If your documents are not already in PDF format, you can find more information below on how to convert your documents to PDF.

Copy of identity document	Please upload a copy of your passport.
Employer statement	Please upload the employer statement in the required format, containing a statement from your superior and a plan of implementation.
Government statement	Some NFP-countries require a Government statement. If the country of your employing organisation requires the statement, please upload the Government statement in the required format. If there is unclarity about the need for a government statement, please contact the Netherlands Embassy in your home country for more information.
Admission letter if available	If you have an admission letter or a letter from your PhD supervisor you upload the letter here.
	This field is optional. The admission letter is not required to register as candidate for NFP or MSP, as the institution can add this information from the student administration if necessary.

Convert documents to PDF

The Portable Document File (PDF) format is commonly used to share documents. However it may be that your documents are in other formats, such as .doc, .jpeg and so on. Follow the instruction below to convert your file to PDF format:

• Save a Microsoft Office (word, excel, PowerPoint) document in PDF format:

- If you have Microsoft Office version 2007 or later, you can click on File/Save as. A 'save as' screen will pop-up, click on the drop-down box 'save as' and choose 'PDF'.
- If you have an earlier version of Microsoft Office, continue to the instruction on how to save other files in PDF format:

Save other files in PDF format:

- PDF printer: It is possible that you already have a PDF printer installed on your computer. In that case, if you can 'print' your document to PDF. In this case: print your document and choose the (Adobe) PDF printer instead of your default printer in the print Menu. (Do not use quick print, as the system will then choose the default printer automatically. Instead use the full print function in your software).
- Local desktop software: It is possible that you already have software on your computer that can convert files to PDF format. Please check with your system administrator. If you have administrator rights, you can also install a free PDF creator on your computer. There are several free PDF creators available for download on the internet. An example is PDFCreator (http://www.pdfforge.org/). Go to the download page and download the application. On the support page you can find the user manual.

- Online: There are several web sites where you can convert your document to PDF format for free. An example is http://www.freepdfconvert.com/ . Click on the 'browse' button to choose the file you want to convert to PDF, fill in your email address and click on 'Convert Your File'. The file will be sent to you in PDF format. Please make sure that the website you are using has a privacy policy that protects your confidential information.
